Acute pneumonias, ARI.

1. Lobar pneumonia: definition, synonyms, etiology, pathogenesis. Stages of development, their morphological characteristics. Pulmonary and extrapulmonary complications and their morphological characteristics.
4. Acute respiratory infections:
   4.1. Influenza: etiology, pathogenesis, clinical and anatomical forms and their morphological characteristics. Pulmonary and extrapulmonary complications, their morphological characteristics.
   4.2. Parainfluenza: etiology, pathogenesis, clinical manifestations typical morphological features, complications.
   4.3. Adenovirus infection: etiology, pathogenesis, clinical and anatomical forms, characteristic microscopic changes, complications.
   4.4. Respiratory syncytial virus infection: etiology, pathogenesis, characteristic morphological changes, complications.
   4.5. Mycoplasmosis: etiology, pathogenesis, gross and microscopic changes in lungs, characteristic morphological features, complications.