Note:

Missed lectures and practical exercises must be completed within one month from the date of the omission.

Working off lectures that are missed for a disrespectful reason is carried out by preparing an abstract on the topic of the missed lecture and an interview on the topic of the missed lecture. The abstract should be written by hand and provided to the teacher during the practice session.

In one day, you can only complete one lecture or one practical lesson that you missed for a disrespectful reason.

Delays to the start time of working off are not allowed and are equated to non-attendance.
