

THEMATIC PLAN OF SEMINARS FOR STUDENTS
in discipline «Infectious Diseases »
for the specialty 1-79 01 01 «General Medicine»
sub-internship in General Medical Practice

| Section (topics)                                                                                                                 | Number of class hours |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------|
|                                                                                                                                  | Practical             |
| 1. General infection syndrome. Fever of unknown origin. Bacterial endocarditis.                                                  | 7                     |
| 2. Infectious diseases of the respiratory system. Acute respiratory failure                                                      | 7                     |
| 3. Infectious diseases occurring with lesions of the gastrointestinal tract. Infectious diarrhea. Dehydration. Hypovolemic shock | 7                     |
| 4. Infectious diseases occurring with lesions of the hepatobiliary system. Complications of viral hepatitis.                     |                       |
| 5. Infectious diseases of the central nervous system. Acute adrenal insufficiency                                                | 7                     |
| 6. Sepsis, septic shock. Infections related to medical care. Fungal infections.                                                  | 7                     |
| 7. Diseases occurring with lymphadenopathy. HIV-infection                                                                        | 7                     |
| 5. Quarantine and especially dangerous infections. Zoonotic infections.                                                          | 7                     |
| Total hours                                                                                                               | 56             |