

CRITERIA OF STUDENTS' KNOWLEDGE EVALUATION at the Propaedeutics of Dentistry and Materials Science Department

10 points (5+) is given to a student, who answered offered questions without mistakes, correctly, logically with the use of scientific terminology; who is capable of self-sustained and creative solving of problems in nonstandard situation and to answer some questions which are out of the program borders.

9 points (5) is given to a student, who answered offered questions without mistakes, correctly, logically with the use of scientific terminology; who is capable of self-sustained and creative solving of problems in nonstandard situation within the program borders.

8 points (4+) is given to a student, who answered offered questions, correctly, logically with the use of scientific terminology; who did insignificant mistake during the answer; who is capable of self-sustained and creative solving of problems in standard situation within the program borders.

7 points (4) is given to a student, who answered offered questions, correctly, logically with the use of scientific terminology; who did 1 or 2 insignificant mistakes during the answer; who is capable of self-sustained and creative solving of problems in standard situation within the program borders.

6 points (4-) is given to a student who showed systematic knowledge in the volume of study program, who did 2 significant or 3 insignificant mistakes during the answer; who is capable of solving problems in standard situation within the program borders.

5 points (3) is given to a student, who showed sufficient knowledge in the volume of study program, who did 1 rude mistake or 3 significant mistakes during the answer; who is capable of self-sustained solving of problems in standard situation within the program borders.

4 points (3-) is given to a student, who showed sufficient knowledge for the further studying of study program, who did 2 rude mistakes or 4 significant mistakes during the answer; who is capable of self-sustained solving of problems in standard situation within the program borders.

3 points (2) is given to a student, who showed insufficient knowledge for the further studying, who did 3 rude and several significant mistakes during the answer.

2 points (2) is given to a student, who showed insufficient knowledge for the further studying, who did 4 rude and several significant mistakes during the answer.

1 point (2) is given to a student, who showed insufficient knowledge for the further studying, who did 5 and more rude mistakes during the answer, who didn't answer all questions offered, or refused to answer.