

MOTHERS AND FATHERS IN CANADA

By Raymond and Brian
Olsen

Mothers are the emotional and psychological support of any family. A mother's nature is thoughtfulness, loving, supporting, and patient. Therefore, the mother is the foundation of any family. The mother must nurture her children as well as her husband. They are the healers.

A statue of Mother
Canada in Nord-Pas de
Calais, France.

The father must be the physical strength of the family. He must protect and provide for his family. He must secure comfortable living for his family. A father must work his mind and body to give his children and wife a happy life!

PAKISTAN

Role of Father in parenting in Pakistan

- Earning and providing - e.g. purchasing and bringing home food
- Outings - visits to family members, neighbours, countryside and towns, especially at weekends. Often such trips were initiated by the child. Sometimes they were done to relieve the mother of a child wanting to be out of the home for a while.
- Playing - indoors and outdoors. Fathers described this as a way of expressing love and making their children happy.
- Fathers are more likely to finance doctors' fees, purchase medicine and taking the child to a doctor

Role of Mother in parenting in Pakistan

- Childcare - washing, dressing, putting to bed.
- Feeding
- Household chores
- However, some other roles are more shared between partners:
- Teaching - cognitive stimulation, instilling values, learning religion (Islam).
- Mothers are more likely to identify the illness, administer the medicine and monitor the child's recovery.

role of father in parents in iran

- Fathers, like mothers, are pillars in the development of a child's emotional well-being. Children look to their fathers to lay down the rules and enforce them. They also look to their fathers to provide a feeling of security, both physical and emotional. Raising children can be a physical and emotional rollercoaster role of mother in parents in iran

- Mothers play a huge role in their children's lives, caring for them, loving them, teaching them, and so much more. The way a child develops can be largely attributed to the role that their parents and caregivers play in their lives, so what exactly is the role of a mother in a child's early childhood development

TURKMENISTAN

Israel

Role of father

- The father is the head of the family, setting its image, direction and its law
- A father is a person who stimulates the child to develop, helps to find out the reasons for failures, encourages achievements and inspires self-confidence.

Role of mother

- Mother takes care of physiological and emotional needs of child: feeds, looks after, monitors the daily routine, talks to him, introduces him to the environment. The mother helps the child to develop his feelings, teaches him to deal with his own body, gradually realizing its boundaries. Even with time, when the child grows up, the mother still protects him.